

The Community Foundation of Tampa Bay is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors.

Through the normal course of its work, Board and staff members of the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay (CFTB) may be exposed to confidential information about donors. CFTB's Board and staff members have pledged to keep all non-public information of a sensitive nature pertaining to donors totally confidential except as required by law.

Specifically:

1. CFTB does not sell, rent, loan or otherwise provide donor contact information to any outside source, person or organization.
2. CFTB does not send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations.
3. CFTB protects donors' rights to privacy and anonymity whenever requested by a donor to a CFTB staff member.
4. CFTB takes every reasonable step to ensure that information technology systems cannot be invaded by unauthorized users.
5. If any donor does not wish to receive communications -- written, electronic or oral -- they may opt out (electronically) or contact one of our staff members by phone, mail or email.

As a community service, the Foundation website provides links to websites of various nonprofits and nonprofit resources. Unless we expressly state otherwise, the Foundation makes no representations whatsoever concerning the content of those sites. A link to a website from cftampabay.org is not an endorsement, authorization, sponsorship, or affiliation with respect to such site, its owners, or providers. This privacy policy applies solely to the information collected by our site.

Like all organizations with a website, the Foundation receives standard tracking data when you visit our site. Information such as your IP address, pages visited, and files you download is recorded in our website server logs. We analyze this data to continue to develop site content and provide updated information that benefits you and the community. However, no personal information is collected during the tracking process.

Because of the number of possible sources of information available through our website and the inherent hazards and uncertainties of electronic distribution, the Foundation cannot and does not warrant the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, or non-infringement of the information available through our website. The Foundation reserves the right to correct any errors or omissions and to change or update information at any time without prior notice.

These policies are subject to change, and we will post any changes to our website. By using our site and services, you signify your acceptance of this Privacy Policy.
